

High School English Teacher – Full time

Bradenton Christian School exists to prepare the hearts and minds of God's children for service in His world, and this cannot happen without teachers who have a passion to know Jesus and make Him known. With daily Bible classes, weekly chapels and teaching every subject area through the lens of a Biblical-Reformed worldview, Bradenton Christian school is Christ-centered in everything we do. We are a college prep school with high academic standards and an interdenominational school family representing more than 90 different churches. Established in 1960, our elementary, middle, and high schools lie on a beautiful, twenty-four-acre campus on the west coast of Florida.

We are looking for High School English Teacher who is a committed follower of Jesus, called to Christian education and has experience integrating faith and learning in the classroom. This position will be instructing Advanced Placement (AP) English Literature, Yearbook Class as well as other high school English courses which could include electives.

The successful candidate will:

- Be certified in K-12 in English
- Demonstrate previous experience teaching an Advanced Placement course
- Communicate and collaborate with parents, students, and teachers
